now claiming that they have enough "drys" won over to their side to put through a bill liberally construing the terms of the amendment.

It is not unlikely that the bill permitting the manufacture and sale of beer and light wines will not be introduced until after the "drys" have left Albany. Already charges of sinister influences being behind the proposed legislation have been made by Senator George F. Thompson, of Niagara. Stronger language is expected from some of the other "drys."

Among those expected next week are the Rev. Howard H. Russell, of Westerville, O., founder of the Anti-Saloon League, and the Rev. P. A. Baker, also of Westerville, president of the league. The convention will open Tuesday morning. The Rev. W. C. Spicer, of Gloversville, will preside.

Those Who Will Talk

Those Who Will Talk

Speakers scheduled for the opening session include Mrs. Ella A. Boole, of Brooklyn, president of the New York State Woman's Christian Temperance Union; W. H. Burr, of Rochester, state chairman of the Prohibition Party; Gordon H. Payne, of Medina, grand electoral superintendent of the Independent Order of Good Templars, and the Rev. James Empringham, superintendent of the Church Temperance Society of New York City. At the afternoon session the principal speakers will be Dr. Russell and Father Curran. On Tuesday evening the principal speeches will be made by Senator Thompson, Assemblyman Walter S. McNab and William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

"The interesting feature of this."
said Mr. Bohm, "is that the strongest advocates of beer for those that want it are men who do not drink. It is clearly a question of principle with them, without a tinge of selfish interest. They say, 'Personally we do not care if there is never another drink to be had, but those who wish it should have it when they want it.'
They resent the invasion of the personal liberty of the individual."

ington has been the storing up of wet goods against the long, long drouth. When it was learned that President Wilson would arrive in Boston Monday and sign the bill immediately a large proportion of the population became absorbed in the provident game.

As to-morrow is Sunday, to-day was practically the last day on which it was possible to bring liquor into the District of Columbia. The District has had local prohibition for about fifteen months, but the freedom with which drinkables could be imported has resulted in the absence of any serious aridity heretofore.

sulted in the absence of any serious aridity heretofore.

Taking advantage of the holiday lay-off from business, Washington people armed with bags, suitcases and sacks began boarding Baltimore interurban electric cars and steam cars at an early hour this morning. All cars and trains were jammed with people going after their own "goods," as the express companies had refused to accept any more shipments into the District, fearing they would not be able to deliver them before the law became effective.

It was impossible for the electric cars to accommodate all who tried to board them, and the regular railway trains had their aisles filled with standing passengers.

The immediate purpose of the Cititens' Leagues will be to crystallize sentiment in favor of the Anti-Saloon League's dry enforcement measure now before the Legislature, to hold in line the Senators and Assemblymen who voted for ratification and to persuade them from voting for the proposed measure permitting the manufacture and sale of beers, if not the lighter wines.

S AN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.— California grape growers will launch a referendum movement against California's legislative adoption of the national prohibition amendment on March 8, it was announced to-day by the executive committee of the California Grape Protective Association. The campaign will be started at open meetings of grape raisers in all parts of the state.

In order to place the issue on the ballot 34,433 names, or 5 per cent of those who voted for Governor in the November election, will be necessary on the petition. An attempt will be made to get 75,000

Repeal of Daylight Saving Law Fought By Many Interests

The danger of the repeal of the daylight savings law through a "rider' attached to the agriculture appropriation bill has brought forth a storm of protest from all parts of the counan organization and its members individually, have started a fight for the defeat of the measure.

The only chance of the man with a moderate thirst and a moderate income is to store it up. And there isn't much more chance. Wholesale prices shoot up the minute the revenue bill is signed, and retail prices will double."

Thoughtful and farsighted drinkers, of course, began their purchasing long before last week. But even they found a bullish market. One well known cartonist, with a glassy eye toward the future, remarked yesterday: "I've been buying and buying till I have no storage of explosives and retail prices will double."

After that I don't know what I will do. Probably move to Europe, unless the league of nations puts in a prohibition plank."
